

STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS OF THE
HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE
CUBAN SITUATION

Representative John S. Monagan, February 7, 1963. UPI

Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, joined Administration supporters firing back at the critics of U.S. intelligence estimates.

"Everyone is an expert on Cuba," Monagan said, "and strangely, the ones who have never been there. And particularly those who are the greatest distance from Cuba, are the greatest experts."